Do Not Stand at my Grave and Weep
by Mary Elizabeth Frye

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there; I did not die.

Amazing Grace
(sung by all)

John Newton

Amazing grace! (how sweet the sound)
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace, my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
And mortal life shall cease;
I shall possess, within the veil,
A life of joy and peace.

Gaelic Benediction

(recited by all)

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
May the rain fall soft upon your field.
Till we meet again, my friend, till we meet again.
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

Flowers are given in loving memory of Julia by Tony Brewer.
Music by Linda Cherniavsky and Juan Ramirez.
